

I do not support the BPL initiative to allow power companies to provide internet access over power lines and request that the FCC take a similar stance. The technology and studies indicate that significant interference results that can disrupt essential services. This is certainly not the time to allow such interference.
Thank You